THE ALEXANDRIA DELEGATES ON THE DEER QUESTION,—As the question of the settlement of the State debt will prohably come before the democratic convention to be held at Roanoke on Thursday next, a reporter of the GAZETTE, in order to ascertain the opinion of the ten Alexandria delegates on the subject, interviewed them with the Mayor Smoot, delegate from the Fourth ward, said he was now engaged in looking over the various debt statements with regard to this very question and was hardly ready for an answer. He thought, however, that the State had better settle with her creditors by paying them as interest what remained of her revenues after paying all the legislative expenses of the State govern-

Judge C. E. Stuart, of the Third ward, thought that the Riddleberger bill with a tax-receivable coupon feature might be agreed upon, but to have the matter settled of Samuel P. Kendall, who was on trial on the control of the he would be even willing to go beyond the Riddleberger settlement.

Dr. A. F. Cox, of the Second ward, said he was in favor of standing by the Riddle-berger bill. The State might be able to pay the debt but it was evident she was not

Mr. J. W. Holt, of the Third ward, was in favor of a proper and equitable assess ment of the property throughout the State of the lands as well of city property-and of making the best settlement with the creditors that the revenues of the State will

Mr. S. G. Brent, of the Third ward, said he was now looking over the report of the debt commission, held during the the recent debt commission, held during the the recent extra session of the legislature, and thought that the proposition of the bondholders, with a few minor changes, might have been accepted by the State. He was in favor of paying the debt.

Mr. R. W. Ballenger, of the Third ward, was in favor of upholding the action of the last legislature in reference to the debt matter. However, if anything better could matter. However, if anything better could be done by the democratic party he would be X. Y. be in favor of such action.

Mr. Richard Rowland, of the Fourth ward, was in favor of making the best settlement that could be agreed upon between the bondholders and the State, regardless of the Riddleberger bill.

Mr. G. O. Monroe, of the First ward, was opposed to any unnecessary agitation of the debt question, but was in taver of settling the debt on a basis giving the creditors all hat the present revenues would allow, after clucting the expenses of the State. Mr. Habert Snowden, of the First ward, thought the only way to settle the debt was to pay it, and the sooner that was done the better it would be for every interest of the Sate. He thought that if half the effort had been made to pay the debt that had been made to keep from paying it the question would have been settled long ago.

It will be seen by the above that the Alexandria delegation is by no means wedded to the Riddleberger settlement.

THE UPTOWN DRAINAGE .- The Committee on Streets and the City Surveyor are now engaged in devising a plan to better bain the northwestern part of the city, and to prevent overflow in cases of heavy rains. A communication was received by Council on Tuesday night from the Board of Health, r commending the closing of the Henry street ditch, which was referred to the Com-mitt, e en Streets, as was also one from the Mayor, recommending the paying of Cam-eron struct, between Patrick and Fayette. On account of defective drainage in this part of the city several suits have been brought against the corporation for damages, claimed to have been done to property thereby, and others it is said are to be instituted. To correct the evil complained of, the Committee on Streets are now bending their efforts.
The head-waters of the old creek, now known as tanyard drain, formerly crossed king street in a ravine at Henry street, but years ago a brick culvert was built through the ravine, which was filled up and Henry street laid out on the top. It is said that until railroad embankments were made the water flowed freely on Henry street into the culvert and passed off southeast to Hunting Creek at Jones's Point, but it is claimed by some that a change in the street grade has caused overflow on property by back water in rain storms, and by others it is urged that the overflow is due to natural causes, for which the corporation is not re-

BODY FOUND .- Justice R. C. Triplett, of Mt. Vernon township, Fairfax county, held un inquest last Thursday upon the body of an unrecognized colored boy, about 14 or 15 years of age, found drowned off the White House fishing shore. The verdict of the jury was that the boy came to his death by secidental drowning. The body, which was entirely nude, and much decomposed, was buried on the shore where found. the colored boy who was drowned last Sunday evening, while bathing at Jones' Point, at the lower end of the city. the residence of E. H. O'Brien, on Cameron street, between Alfred and Columbus streets, to I. M. Kell, trustee, for $1,500.

Mr. Lucas also sold, for the executors, the four two-story frame houses and lots, situated on Peyton street, between Prince and Duke, belonging to the estate of the late Townsend Baggett, to Mrs. E. M. Myers, for $1,000. for $1,020.

A GOOD CHANCE FOR INVESTMENT .- Alexandria has for several years felt the need of a new hotel centrally located, and a building of say 60 or 75 rooms at or near the corner of Washington and King streets, would pay a handsome interest on the amount invested. Such a house could be filled with permanent boarders, and would stop many transient guests who now go through to Washington. We have a good opera house, and other attractions, and the rapid growth of the city makes this enterprise necessary and important to our busness welfare.

TRIBUTE OF RESPECT.

At a meeting of the Alexandria Commercial Exchange, held July 30, 1887, Mr. D. G. Watkins, in a few feeling renearks, announced the death of John H. Burroughs, esq., late member of that body. Messrs. P. B. Hooe, J. J. Jamieson and J. G. Beckham were appointed a committee to draft resolutions suitable to the memory of the deceased. The committee reported the following, which were unanimously adopted:

LOCAL BREVITIES.

Excursion boats carried large crowds down the river this morning.

A dog fight drew a considerable crowd at the head of sharp-skin alley this morning. The steamer Mattano, having been thoroughly repaired, will resume her route to morrow.

The new front of Calmes' restaurant is finished, and adds greatly to the appearance of the row.

A lady living on Duke street is said to have taken a vial of laudanum with suicidal intent last night.

The Old Dominion Building Association met last night, but nothing of general interest was transacted.

The rumor that the Real Estate, Investment, Trust and Title Co. had negotiated for the Capital brick works is denied.

A young man from the country fell in a fit on Royal street, near Duke, this morning, but soon recovered and went on his way.

The three masted schooner C. S. Vangilder has been hauled up at the ship yard. The pungy Flora is also on the ways there. The Commercial Exchange will attend the funeral ceremonies of Mr. John H. Burroughs in a body at 10 o'clock on Monday

Eight marriage licenses were issued and forty deeds were recorded in the office of the clerk of the Corporation Court for the month of July.

The funeral of Mrs. Annie Limerick, for-merly of Charles county, Md., took place this evening from the residence of her brother-in law, Mr. Richard Webster, on Queen street. Wm. Lyles, son of Mr. Geo. Lyles, while on an excursion yesterday was taken sud-denly ill just before reaching the wharf here and had to be taken home. He is much better to-day.

The market this morning was, for this time of year, poorly supplied with the "deli-cacies of the season," and those who went late fared badly. Prices of meats keep up while vegetables, as they become more plentiful, are declining.

A delightful party was given at Fairfax C. H., last night by the Misses Moore, daughters of Mr. Thos. Moore, which was largely attended by the belles and beaux of the county. Several young gentlemen of this city and Washington were present.

Wm. Barton, aged sixty-five years, of this city, foll on F street, near Twelfth, in Washington yesterday afternoon and was carried to the Emergency Hospital, where he received medical attendence. He was found to be suffering from the heat and severe nervous prostration.

A misconstruction of one of the articles of the contract between the V. M. and B. & O. companies by the agent at Strasburg, caused a misunderstanding at that place yesterday, giving rise to a report that there was trouble there, but no trouble was caused and the matter was speedily settled without difficulty.

The "cool wave" due, according to the Signal Service, yesterday at 6 p. m., was evidently knocked into smithereeus, before it got this far south, as a warmer night has not been experienced hereabouts for years At 2 o'clock this evening the mercury indi-cated 94°, with a deferred "cool wave" prophesied later. So mote it be.

There will be no regular excursion boat to Colonial Beach until the Arrowsmith is repaired, which will be possibly ten days hence.

MONETARY AND COMMERCIAL.

NEW YORK, July 30 .- The stock market openel generally heavy, though changes from last evening's final figures were for small fraction only. The market was extremely active in the early trading and very weak and feverish, but during the first half hour Richmond and West Point declined 114. After this, on a reduced business, there was a straggling fractional recovery Material declines were made in a few specialties. The decline was again renewed and lower prices reached in many stocks, and at 11 o'clock the market was active and weak. Money easy at 4a5,
